Landmark Advanced Course – Notes

Give Up Your Act, Everything is Your Act

Self as a new future as a new realm of possibility

Individual→relationship→family→groups/community→organization→society→world

REALITY

Personal tests: beliefs, past experiences, personal logic, thoughts, feelings, senses, intuition/hunches

Life doesn't work because it is based on unreality

Sincerity is a pretense for authenticity

Everything is created by me

All games are played to win

Play with heart and soul, you always win the games you play.

You reap what you sow.

Live life powerfully and a life you love

Play the game of happiness, the game of laughter and the game of collective awakening

You are a born winner what are you running after

Transformed, power, freedom, self-expression, and peace

A new realm of possibility for being human

Goals don't make people happy, happy people make goals.

The game is collective transformation, the result is world peace (invention of self as a new future, as a new realm of possibility) making a difference, breakthrough in the world of enrollment.

Blameless, fearless, powerful, complete, courageous

Space of leadership—being a leader means that everyone around you becomes a leader

Your transformation is the transformation of the other person

Unmessable for the rest of your life.

Interim tests of reality: Authority, Consensus, Fitting, Logical, Reasonable, Predictable, Reproducibility (reality by agreement—the more you fight it the more it becomes real)

Ultimate test of reality (physicalness, distance, time, form, DTF—measurability)

What happened → The Story (Unreal)

Personal Test

We make language, language makes our reality

Reality independent of language, dependent on language

THINK BEFORE YOU SPEAK

If you don't play the game of commitment you play the game of circumstances.

Miracles have to be created

Position is when you make people wrong—different from taking a stand

Don't engage with people's rackets

Choose what you have

Everything is inside of my act—I'm not my act

Stop being interesting and be interested

Who you are is who your future is

Unattached yet committed

Untie and send to base camp

All cause, no cause

Future exists in your mouth

Be-cause (future) → what happened (present) → story (past)

The nuclear bomb is language, be careful how you use it

There are no obstacles, there are merely conditions of the game.

Integrity is speaking consistently in all situations, keeping our word when possible, saying what we won't be able to keep it and dealing with the consequences.

Integrity makes us whole, complete and powerful. A Declared future is not a dream of hope but a future to which you have committed yourself.

PROMISE

I have generated a new realm of possibility for my life that is distinct from what my past says is possible. That new realm of possibility generates power, joy, self-expression, and fulfillment in the present.

Who I am is peace, power, joy and fearlessness and that is who I am.

The purpose of my life is to bring happiness, love and understanding to all sentient beings and create a collective awakening.

I commit to a life of authenticity, integrity, passion and skillful action and to live in a constant state of gratitude and be in the here and now.
